An outstanding French 18th century Régence st. giltwood double framed mirror. The original beveled central mirror plate is framed within a finely carved and mottled border. The outer original mirror plates display striking pierced foliate corner mounts with richly carved masks on a hammered background. An elegant foliate band extends along the border throughout the mirror. The most impressive mirrored top crown displays beautiful scrolled movements with lovely foliate designs, mottled giltwood fillets and richly carved seashell reserve. The top crown is centered by an exceptional mask of a maiden amidst a hammered design.
