A magnificent and extremely high quality French 19th century 1st Empire period ormolu and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The twenty four light chandelier is centered by an exceptional bottom floral finial in a rich satin and burnished finish below a beautiful acanthus leaf designed reserve. Most elegant cut faceted Baccarat crystal garlands lead upwards with fine berried laurel ormolu supports to the wrap around central tier with finely detailed scrolled foliate designs. The central tier displays twelve stunning intricately detailed scrolled swan necks holding lovely foliate bobechees in their mouths with fine baluster shaped candle cups and twelve striking richly chased curved berried laurel palmettes also displaying charming baluster shaped candle cups. Elegant draped Baccarat crystal garlands lead upwards to the superb top crown with additional impressive berried laurel palmettes adorned with lovely swaging crystal garlands and cut prism shaped pendants. All original gilt throughout.
