A handsome and high quality French 19th century Biscuit de Sèvres statue of the young Harvester signed Quinter E. B. Paris. The statue is raised by a fine ground like design where the signature is displayed. The charming young man is dressed in period attire with his wonderfully executed clothes and jacket blowing in the wind. He is standing in front of a tree stump while carrying two woven baskets tied to a wooden bar over his shoulders. The baskets were typically used in transporting grapes from the vineyards. Wonderfully executed with exquisite details throughout. Original patina.
