A most impressive and large scale French 19th century Charles X Period Ormolu and Mirror centerpiece plateau, signed Dunouy Fait a Paris. The Sur Tout de Table is raised by three double demi lune Ormolu supports below blocks which are decorated by musical instruments all below a raised lyre with hanging ribbons. The frieze of the plateau has a recessed center with scrolled grape vines. Above are richly decorated pierced grape vine garlands with a central urn filled with blossoming flowers and ripe fruits. At each end and flanking the lyres are fanciful cornucopias with an animal head at the bottom while the top is also filled with blossoming flowers and rip fruit. The signature stamp can be found on the inside base of one of the lyres.
