A striking French 19th century Empire st. Mahogany, ormolu, and Opera Fantastico marble side table. The table is raised by three elegant lightly curved square tapered legs with handsome paw feet and palmettes with richly chased acanthus leaves and a tied berried laurel wreath in a rich satin and burnished finish above. Each leg is connected by a fine stretcher with concave sides and a beautiful central ormolu floral rosette. The frieze displays three delicate pierced ormolu mounts of a bow with berried laurel branches and lovely floral wreaths. Above is the original fitted Opera Fantastico marble top framed within a fine mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
