A striking and high quality French 19th century Empire st. Napoleon III period Sèvres porcelain and ormolu lidded centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by a circular mottled ormolu base with a fine coeur-de-rai, interlocking and foliate band. The elegant Sèvres porcelain body displays an impressive central eagle below three stars, framed in a finely detailed berried laurel wreath and beautiful berried laurel branches. At the back is the Napoleon N below a crown also framed within charming berried laurel branches. Impressive richly chased intertwined snakes extend up each side to the pierced ormolu rim with intricately detailed foliate and palmette bands. The removable lid is centered by an exceptional striking central eagle amidst wonderful gilt rinceaux shaped scrolled foliate and floral movements. Also finished on the inside.
