A striking French 19th century Empire st. patinated bronze and ormolu chandelier. The fifteen arm chandelier is centered by a charming foliate finial amidst superb scrolled foliate designs. The patinated bronze body displays an elegant curved design with a fine top foliate topie shaped finial. Ten beautifully scrolled arms branch out decorated with richly chased rosettes and adorned with acanthus leaves leading to the fluted bobeches. Above are five additional arms each displaying exceptional tapered reeded candle cups flanked by exceptional scrolled elements with fine rosettes. Five beautiful chains with laurel designs lead upwards to the unique and extremely decorative ball shaped top crown with fine richly chased scrolled acanthus leaf supports. All original gilt and patina throughout.
