An impressive and high quality French 19th century Louis XIV st. Ormolu chandelier. The eight arm eight light chandelier is centered by a bottom foliate final below a lovely mottle socle and foliate reserve below the central support and from where the eight scrolled arms branch out. Each arm displays richly chased acanthus leaves leading to intricately detailed foliate bobeches below the beaded and foliate candle cups. The central fut showcases four handsome scrolled elements decorated with floral designs surrounding a turned and mottled Ormolu support. Above is the striking four sided top crown with exceptional foliate movements below a mottled support ending with an Ormolu hoop.
