An elegant and very high quality French 19th century Louis XIV st. patinated Bronze and Ormolu candelabra lamp. The lamp is raised by fine square mottled feet below the base with lovely scrolled foliate details and curved sides and reeded designs. The tapered patinated Bronze central support is flanked by beautiful finely detailed maidens with superb scrolled foliate acanthus leaves and connected by richly chased swaging berried laurel garlands tied at a striking rosette. The seven elegantly scrolled arms above are each adorned with fine acanthus leaves leading to reeded bobèches and foliate candle cups centering the single support. All original gilt throughout and displayed with its original toile shade.
