A stunning and palatially scaled French 19th century Louis XV st. Belle Époque period ormolu and patinated bronze chandelier. The most impressive sixty arm chandelier is centered by a magnificent richly chased berried and foliate bottom finial with a superb and extremely decorative satin and burnished finish below an exceptional array of exquisite scrolled foliate arms. Each of the arms displays a beautiful and most decorative shape adorned with spectacular foliate designs and large acanthus leaves leading to exquisite floral bobeches and candle cups. The central fut displays a fine baluster shape also decorated with lovely intricately detailed foliate designs leading up to a fabulous reserve where charming richly chased patinated bronze cherubs are playing with lovely finely detailed blooming flower garlands amidst graceful scrolled foliate designs also displaying a superb satin and burnished finish. Above is the impressive pierced top crown with additional beautiful scrolled foliate designs and finely detailed swaging blooming flower garlands.
