A striking and large scale French 19th century Louis XV st. Breche Violette and ormolu trophy. The trophy is raised by a square ormolu base with concave corners and decorative recessed hammered designs. The elegant socle pedestal is encased by a decorative ormolu band with a fluted and tied pattern and four large acanthus leaves. The trophy shaped body displays wonderful veins throughout with impressive and richly chased scrolled ormolu foliate movements, in a fabulous satin and burnished finish leading up each side. Above the decorative foliate rim is the removable lid with a fine ormolu rosette to the underside, and a unique ormolu finial above, with a pomegranate and floral design. Wonderful proportions.
