An elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. ebonized Fruitwood and ormolu desk. The Bureau Plat is raised by slender cabriole legs with pierced ormolu sabots decorated with acanthus leaves, a front cartouche and above with pierced ormolu mounts of foliate scrolls amidst acanthus leaves. The scalloped shaped apron displays two drawers with ormolu key hole escutcheons and foliate decorated C scrolled ormolu handles. The opposite side is decorated with the same mounts, with the sides having an arbalest shape with a central pierced ormolu reserve. The top has its original brown fitted leather writing surface surrounded by an ebonized Fruitwood border and giltwood bullnose gallery.
