A beautiful and most elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood and Fleur de Pêcher marble side table. The table is raised by beautiful slender tapered cabriole legs with fine hoof feet and charming carved foliate and floral designs leading up to lovely foliate corner reserves. The scalloped shaped frieze displays a most decorative lattice design centered by a most decorative pierced foliate reserve. Above is the original Fleur de Pêcher marble top fitted within an elegant mottled border.
