An elegant French 19th Century Louis XV st. giltwood and marble wall mounted console. The console is raised by fine topie shaped feet below elegant cabriole legs adorned with richly carved acanthus leaves and floral movements. The legs are connected by a striking pierced stretcher with a scrolled and foliate design. At each corner are impressive seashell reserves centering the impressive pierced arbalest shaped frieze with a beautiful foliate reserve and most decorative movements. Above is the original Rouge Royal marble top repeating the fabulous shape of the console below with rounded corners and a mottled border. All original gilt.
