An elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood mirror. At the bottom of the violin shaped frame is a central reserve of a double 'S' scrolled acanthus leaf decoration with richly carved flowers in the center. The frame with a wavelike design amidst burnished cabochons has additional 'C' scrolled acanthus leaves on each side leading to the central top reserve. The top central pierced reserve has various scrolls flanked by floral sprays. All original gilt and beveled glass which follow the contours of the frame. Exquisite quality throughout.
