A striking French 19th century Louis XV st. Napoleon III period ebony and ormolu mounted desk. The two drawer desk is raised by eight cabriole legs elegantly decorated by ormolu chutes leading to the bottom ormolu pierced sabots. The scalloped apron has a central seashell reserve flanked by elegant floral movements. The two drawers have richly chased ormolu handles with foliate scrolls. To each side are additional striking and richly chased ormolu mounts with central masculine figures on sunburst shaped backgrounds and flanked by scrolled foliate movements. The top has four corners richly decorated with ormolu rosettes centered by smooth cabochons which border the brown leather and gold tooled top. All framed within a fine mottled ormolu gallery.
