A stunning and extremely high quality French 19th century Louis XV st. Napoleon III period giltwood and polychrome center table. The exquisite circular table is raised by elegant cabriole legs with lovely scrolled acanthus leaf feet and beautiful scrolled foliate designs with impressive richly carved maidens at each corner amidst charming blooming flowers. The legs are connected by an exceptional stretcher with superb scrolled foliate designs leading to an outstanding central reserve with beautiful gadroons and a finely detailed floral finial. A delicate berried laurel band leads up each leg and along the arbalest shaped frieze with a central tied ribbon and a beautiful recessed plaque with charming interlocking branches with leaves and blooming flowers set on a hammered background and framed within a beaded border. The top displays its original stunning polychrome finish with exquisite finely detailed etched scrolled foliate movements and blooming flowers. All original gilt throughout.
