A stately and very attractive French 19th century Louis XV st. Ormolu and Baccarat Crystal centerpiece. The centerpiece bowl is raised by front and back "S" scrolled pierced supports with a foliate design. The two outer supports have an elegant double reverse foliate decorated "C" scrolled design in which the upper "C" scrolls become the handles of the centerpiece. The supports are joined by an oval foliate decorated Ormolu band. The base supports the thick Baccarat crystal bowl which has decorative faceted cuts throughout all below the beveled scalloped top rim. All original gilding throughout.
