A striking French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal centerpiece bowl stamped Baccarat. The centerpiece is raised by four beautiful scrolled supports with lovely pierced reeded foliate designs at the center and elegantly curved movements leading up each side to exquisite richly chased leaves and flower buds in a superb satin and burnished finish. At the center is the original thick Baccarat crystal bowl with delicate floral petal like designs at the border and an etched circular rosette at the base. Stamped on the underside of the foot. All original gilt throughout.
