An exquisite French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The twelve arm fifteen light chandelier is centered by a bottom solid crystal ball amidst a striking array of beautiful scalloped shaped cut crystal pendants with three light bulbs at the center lighting up the striking central crystal reserve and dagger. The elegantly scrolled arm and cage lead upwards adorned with additional beautiful cut crystal pendants and fine rosettes with nine arms leading to lovely floral candle cups and three leading to most impressive crystal daggers each housing a light bulb emitting a unique and most decorative glow. Above are additional striking daggers with the neck encased in a superb crystal casing and the top crown with beautiful floral sprays. All original gilt throughout.
