A striking and most impressive French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu lidded urn. The urn is raised by a beautiful and uniquely designed base with striking reeded scrolled foliate designs. Above the socle shaped pedestal is the elegantly shaped body decorated with richly chased and extremely decorative foliate movements centering a smooth cabochon reserve. Impressive and finely detailed scrolled acanthus leaf handles lead up each side to the fluted neck and superb removable reeded lid with a charming foliate finial with intricately detailed flowers in a rich satin and burnished finish. The lid is removable to reveal the finished interior.
