A charming and extremely decorative French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu, tole and Sèvres porcelain sconces. Each sconce is centered by an elegant bottom acorn finial below beautiful richly chased scrolled acanthus leaves leading up the elegant tapered body. The lightly curved arms each display a fine fluted design wrapped in wonderfully executed vine like branches leading to floral bobeches and unique woven basket candle cups. The beautiful luxuriantly scrolled branches with finely etched leaves display exquisite hand painted flowers with a stunning array of vibrant colors centering charming wonderfully executed personages. The sconce to the left depicts a beautiful maiden wearing a lovely flowing flower dress and a bonnet while the sconce to the right depicts a young man dressed in elegant period attire wearing a bicorne in Napoleon's "en bataille" fashion. All original gilt throughout.
