A beautiful French 19th century Louis XV st. porcelain and ormolu lamp. The lamp is raised by a striking richly chased ormolu base with fine foliate designs and Greek keys in a satin and burnished finish. The elegantly shaped porcelain body displays a finely detailed central reserve of a beautiful maidens with an array of hand painted flowers in vivid colors throughout. At each side are scrolled ormolu handles with wonderfully detailed acanthus leaves, satyrs and charming acorn finials. Above is the most decorative ormolu top cap with fine foliate designs.
