A superb French 19th century Louis XV st. silvered bronze centerpiece with its original removable interior. The centerpiece is raised by elegant scrolled foliate feet. The body displays a beautiful and most decorative scalloped shape with fine foliate scrolled designs and a smooth central cabochon centered by intricately chased flowers. At each side are pierced handles while the rim displays additional fine large scrolls. At the center is the original removable fitted interior with two pulls. All original finish throughout.
