A sensational and high quality French 19th century Louis XV st. Toile, Gilt Metal and Saxe porcelain chandelier. The twelve arm, twenty five light chandelier is centered by a bottom electrified Toile tier above an elegant spray of blossoming flowers, which illuminates the bottom of the chandelier. Above and at the center of the open foliate cage is a Gilt platform with a charming Porcelain parrot perched above a tree stump and the four main scrolled branches. Each of the arms lead to three levels of scrolled foliate arms with Toile leaves and various Porcelain flowers before the foliate saucers and Gilt metal candle cups. Among the scrolled arms and foliate cage are additional Porcelain birds and lighting to illuminate the interior of the chandelier. The arms lead upwards to the elaborate top crown which is wrapped by a Gilt metal ribbon and displays an abundance of additional Porcelain flowers above an additional interior light. Wonderfully decorative and intricate attention to detail.
