A charming and most elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. tulipwood, charmwood, ormolu and Brocatelle Violette marble side table. The table is raised by lovely cabriole legs with fine fitted foliate wrap around ormolu sabots. The legs are connected by a bottom tier with a beautiful quarter veneered pattern, a most decorative concave front, and a pierced ormolu gallery. The frieze displays one drawer with a wonderfully executed inlaid floral charmwood design, also repeated at the sides and back. A richly chased berried laurel and tied ribbon keyhole escutcheon centers the drawer. Above is the original fitted Brocatelle Violette marble top framed within a most elegant pieced ormolu gallery.
