A handsome French 19th century Louis XV st. Tulipwood, Kingwood, Ormolu and Brèche Violette marble cabinet/vitrine. The stunning three door cabinet is raised on a scalloped base with an Ormolu moulded band at the frieze. The central door with a silk interior curtain has an Ormolu lattice designed grill with an Ormolu border, hinges and Ormolu keyhole escutcheon. Each side door is decorated with a lovely parquetry design, continued at each side, and with the same hardware. The doors open to reveal interior adjustable shelves. Above is a moulded Ormolu band accented at each corner with pierced foliate Ormolu mounts within Ormolu trims. Above is the original and impressive thick Brèche Violette marble to which follows the shape of the cabinet. All original warm patina and gilt throughout.
