A stunning and elegant French 19th century Louis XV/XVI st. Ormolu and Crystal chandelier. This wonderful four arm chandelier is centered at the bottom by a spherical cut crystal ball hanging from a topie shaped Ormolu finial. All of the crystals on this finely designed chandelier are decorated with bands of metal scrolled around the top, giving each crystal its own unique characteristic. Each of the four scrolled arms have interlocking spherical crystal garlands connecting each arm along with a central reserve of hanging prism cut Crystals. At the mid section are exquisite wandering bands with an array of different Crystal shapes including rosettes, prism cut, pear and kite cut Crystals. The top crown of this chandelier has four Ormolu scrolled sprays with additional cut Crystal decorations.

Original Chain and Canopy Length: 24"
