A beautiful and most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. alabaster, ormolu and cloisonné centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by elegant foliate feet with the two outer supports leading up to the tails of charming and richly chased winged cherubs seemingly holding the central support. The support displays a lovely most colorful cloisonné base with a unique bird bath shape and striking foliate designs. The circular alabaster top displays a fine wrap around ormolu band with additional beautiful cloisonné designs and elegant circular hoop handles at each side. All original gilt throughout.
