A striking and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Baccarat crystal and ormolu vase. The vase is raised by a square ormolu base with fine recessed floral designs and a beautiful wrap around foliate band at the Baccarat crystal socle shaped pedestal support. The body displays superb fluted and diamond shaped cut designs with elegantly scrolled handles at each side with richly chased rams heads connected by remarkable berried foliate swaging garlands in a fine satin and burnished finish. Above a mottled wrap around ormolu band with a lovely berried laurel and floral design is the elegantly curved neck with fine lightly fluted designs and a delicate tulip rim.
