A beautiful French 19th century Louis XVI st. Baccarat crystal and ormolu vase. The vase is raised by a square base with elegant topie shaped ormolu feet and a finely mottled wrap around band. Above the socle shaped pedestal is the beautifully shaped body with exceptional cut designs and lovely finely detailed etched floral elements with most decorative scrolled arms leading up each side. Each arm is adorned with an intricately detailed acanthus leaf leading to two richly chased and intricately detailed serpents flanking the lovely floral designed Baccarat crystal rim.
