A handsome French 19th century Louis XVI st. Baccarat crystal vase. The vase is raised by four fine foliate feet below the circular ormolu and tray. The tray is decorated with a lovely egg and dart border and has four richly chased reserves depicting different scenes. Each scene is flanked by a decorative maiden set on a foliate background. At the center, above an ormolu etched acanthus leaf pattern are maidens amidst gilded water flora, encasing its original finely etched Baccarat crystal vase with frosted accents.
