A stunning and extremely decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Baccarat crystal and ormolu chandelier. The seven light chandelier is centered by a unique hanging central light bulb surrounded by a lovely richly chased wrap around foliate ormolu band and beautiful beaded garlands leading upwards to the central ormolu band. The central band also displays a fine foliate design adorned with a stunning array of Baccarat crystal palmettes with lovely rosettes, exceptional swaging beaded garlands, and superb kite shape crystal pendants. Additional beaded garlands lead upwards in an elegantly curved manner with six concealed light bulbs emitting a wonderful warm glow. The striking top crown displays additional beautiful Baccarat crystal palmettes, swaging beaded garlands and fine crystal pendants.
