Above is the original Brèche Violette marble top framed within a finely mottled wrap around ormolu gallery.
