A striking and extremely elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period white Carrara marble and ormolu pedestal display base. The display base is raised by unique and most decorative double topie shaped feet with a lovely reeded design in a rich satin and burnished finish. The base displays a circle shape with decorative protruding elements above the feet. At the center, rear and sides are richly chased ormolu mounts with a draped fabric design and foliate patterns which are fitted to the delicate stepped design above.
