A most elegant and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. cartel clock, signed Le Masurier Paris. The richly chased ormolu case is in the shape of a lyre. At the bottom are tied berried laurel garlands which follow the contours of the clock to the mid section. At the bottom, the intertwined garlands are decorated with scrolls of acanthus leaves. Below the silver plated back plate and strings of the Lyre is the wonderfully detailed enamel clock face. Two majestic eagle heads face outward while the top is adorned with an elaborately designed tied bow. All original gilt throughout.
