A lovely and most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. Celadon Porcelain and Ormolu lamp. This stunning Pâte-Sur-Pâte Porcelain lamp is raised by an elegant Ormolu base supported by four circular tapered fluted feet with a beaded band around the top. The circular socle shaped base is tastefully decorated with berried foliate designs, dentil patterns, and a mottled upper edge. The beautifully shaped body displays charming and most decorative Pâte-Sur-Pâte central floral designs which are flanked by the Ormolu double profile mounts or a man and woman. Atop the slender neck is the Ormolu cap decorated with a beaded band and mottled edges all above a band of draping tassels.
