A magnificent French 19th century Louis XVI st. cobalt blue glass and ormolu twelve light chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a striking ormolu acorn finial below the beautiful and most decorative original cobalt blue glass dome with a cut square pattern. The pierced ormolu rim displays fine intertwined tied ribbons and berried laurel branches, from where six pairs of arms branch out. Each elegantly curved arm is connected by striking richly chased rams heads and display lovely foliate candle cups and acanthus leaves. Leading up to the superb tied ribbon canopy are six unique ormolu floral chains.
