A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. double frame giltwood mirror. The original central oval mirror plate displays a fine bevel and is framed within a decorative beaded border with richly carved foliate accents. The outer original mirror plates also display an elegant bevel and a lovely beaded border. At the bottom is a charming tied ribbon while a fine berried laurel band that extends along the edge of the frame. At the top crown are wonderfully executed love birds amidst a berried laurel branch, bow and quiver and the eternal flame. All French symbols of love, wealth and longevity. With all original gilt throughout.
