An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. eighteen light ormolu chandelier. A regal pierced crown with acanthus leaf and rosette designs tops the tiered pedestal. An urn shaped element displaying mask medallions with hammered background is surrounded by alternating scrolls. Each of the six 'S' scrolled arms split in two. Between each arm are six additional shorter arms. Richly chased with textured background, scrolls and acanthus leaves and end in scalloped and pierced saucers and candlecups. Connected to the arms below another elaborately decorated crown with scrolls, rosettes and a reeded base. Below is another pedestal with a scalloped surround and finial. Ornate finials throughout with original satin and burnished finish.
