A magnificent French 19th century Louis XVI st. flamed Mahogany, Ebony, patinated bronze and ormolu cabinet vitrine. The four door vitrine is raised by fine ormolu ball feet with an elegant mottled Ebony bottom border. The central glass doors each display a decorative arched design with beautiful foliate ormolu keyhole escutcheons and unique finely detailed Aladdin oil lamps at each corner. The outer doors showcase the stunning flamed Mahogany wood grain with delicate Ebony fillets, lovely ormolu rosettes, a foliate band, and exceptional fitted patinated bronze plaques in the manner of Clodion of charming cherubs playing. The doors all open to reveal four adjustable shelves. Above inlaid Ebony fillets with a beautiful Greek key design and richly chased berried laurel ormolu bands is the finished top with a raised wrap around border making the cabinet decorative from the top also.
