A charming and unique French 19th century Louis XVI st. four arm, five light ormolu and colored glass chandelier. The chandelier base design is of a weave basket with an inverted bottom acorn finial and a top beaded rim below a scrolled design. The basket is adorned by four 'S' scrolled reeded arms leading to acanthus leaf designed saucers below the candle cup. The inside of the basket is electrified and lights the cluster of colored grapes. The basket is suspended by a hanging knotted fabric design.
