A remarkable and extremely decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Alabastro marble pedestal/side table. The circular pedestal is raised by three elegantly curved legs with handsome paw feet and is adorned with large richly carved acanthus leaves leading to block rosettes and an additional elegant scrolled carved acanthus leaf. Impressive intricately detailed swaging berried laurel garlands extend along the frieze tied with charming ribbons at the wrap around tied reeded band. Above is the beautiful fitted Alabastro marble top.

Top Marble Dimension: 14.5"
