A superb French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and patinated wood pedestal column. The circular pedestal is raised by fine square supports below beautiful scrolled movements adorned with richly carved acanthus leaves. A most elegant carved giltwood band with decorative oval designs extends along the base. The pedestal displays three carved recessed panels with a beautiful central carved flower below luxuriant scrolled foliate designs framed within a fine mottled band. Above is the patinated recessed display tier framed within a striking wrap around tied fluted giltwood band. All original gilt throughout.
