A stunning and extremely high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Vert Antique marble center table. The large scaled rectangular two drawer center table is raised by elegant mottled bun feet below square block rosettes and impressive circular tapered fluted legs with richly carved acanthus leaf top caps. Each leg is attached by a most decorative scrolled geometric shaped stretcher with a fine beaded design at the border. Above each leg are additional carved block rosettes flanking finally detailed and extremely decorative Vitruvian scrolls which extend along the straight apron and framed within a mottled border and centered by an elegant block rosette.

Each side and back are decorated in the same fashion. Each side also displays a drawer retaining its original hardware. Above is the original thick Vert Antique marble top with a fine mottled border.
