A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Vert Campan marble side table. The table is raised on three supports ending with hoof feet. Each leg has a twisted rope design topped with acanthus leaves and a rosette block. The legs are joined by a triangular cane tier with concave sides. At the impressive pierces frieze are additional foliate designs and a swaging laurel garlands. The top has a clover shape and has a fitted Vert Campan marble within a carved giltwood border. With all original gilt throughout
