A stunning and very high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Vert de Patricia marble center table. The oblong center table is raised by elegant topie shaped feet below fine block rosettes and beautiful spiral fluted legs with acanthus leaf carvings, and charming swaging beaded garlands with tied ribbons. The legs are each connected by a most decorative pierced stretcher with beautiful lyre shapes adorned with finely detailed berried laurel branches and fine rosettes centering a circular mottled foliate reserve. Above each leg are additional striking block rosettes flanking the straight apron decorated with a lovely twisted ribbon border and superb pierced geometric rosettes with laurel designs set within fine beaded bands. Above is the original Vert de Patricia marble with a fine mottled border.
