An exceptional and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and white Carrara marble oval center table. The table is raised by fine topie shaped feet below circular tapered fluted legs. The legs are connected by a most impressive curved X shaped stretcher with a lovely carved border and a richly carved central lyre amidst laurel branches. The apron displays an elegant fluted design with block rosettes above each legs and centered by a charming tied ribbon and finely detailed foliate carvings. Above is the original white Carrara marble top with a mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
