An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood floor lamp. The lamp is raised by three 'S' scrolled legs with bottom large acanthus leaves, Rai-de-Coeur design and a top rosette. The three supports are joined by a circular bottom tier bordered by carved cabochons. The central tapered fut has a quiver style design and additional carved acanthus leaves. Above are fletchings designs and richly carved floral garlands. The top has a circular outward design with decorative chandeliers leading to the cabochon edge. Shown with a Cedric DuPont Antiques tailor made duo colored pin tuck silk shade.
