A striking and extremely decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood mirror. The mirror retains its original beveled mirror plate set within most decorative interlocking designs and slender fluted lightly tapered architectural columns leading up each side, and beaded and Les Oves designed border. At the base are beautiful scrolled foliate movements and acanthus leaves centering a lovely reserve of ripe fruits and blooming flowers. Above each column are urns with scrolled handles and blooming flowers centering the exceptional pierced top crown decorated with branches tied in a wreath with a charming bow. All original gilt throughout.
